

No incubation centre has been established in the college yet. However, the Placement Cell actively undertakes various activities to motivate and guide students towards starting their own businesses. Through workshops, interactive sessions, and skill-development programmes, the cell aims to nurture entrepreneurial potential and instill an entrepreneurial mindset among the students. These efforts help students develop the confidence, creativity, and practical knowledge required to explore self-employment opportunities and contribute as future entrepreneurs.